You're invited to an innovative event designed for IT professionals, project managers, operators, and automation specialists working in cleanrooms.

Combining a high-level conference with an interactive industry exhibition, PharmaTech Expo & Conference 2025 brings together the brightest minds in the life sciences sector. Whether you're focused on IT solutions, automation, or operational excellence, this event offers a unique opportunity to dive into the latest advancements, share your expertise, and network with partners in the industry.

At PharmaTech Expo & Conference 2025, you'll experience:

- Engaging Presentations: Gain insights into the latest trends and innovations shaping the industry.
- Hands-On Demos: Experience IT hardware and automation solutions in action, with an expanded demonstration environment for a truly immersive experience.
- Collaboration with professionals who share your passion for advancing pharmaceutical production.
- Actionable insights to optimize your operations and stay ahead of industry trends.
- Networking Opportunities: Connect with decision-makers, industry leaders, and fellow professionals during interactive sessions and our signature "Mingle Meal Lunch" — a perfect blend of networking and great food.

This is more than just an event — it's a chance to be part of a community driving innovation in pharmaceutical manufacturing. Whether you're looking to learn, share, or connect, PharmaTech Expo & Conference 2025 is the place to be.

Place: KolleKolle, Værløse - Free parking and exceptional catering.
